

BROADSTONE HALL PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Week 26 ending 28th March

Welcome to the Broadstone Hall Primary School Newsletter!

HEADTEACHERS NOTE:

As reported in last week's newsletter, our reading team have embarked on a massive overhaul of our books in school; auditing all our home readers, organising them and more importantly order more books where needed. This is a massive undertaking which doesn't happen overnight but we will keep you updated on our progress look forward to introducing new reading material in school. Thank-you

CELEBRATING EXCELLENT WORK

Year 3 have produced some fantastic work about pollination and fertilisation of flowers! The children below all got awarded Headteachers Awards for their detailed drawings of the steps involved in pollination and fertilisation of a flowering plant. Well done to Poppy T, Orla H, Bradley J & Bodhi B; all 3VH

TRANSPENINE EASTER CHILDREN'S ACTIVITY PACK

We're delighted to let you know that the latest Children's activity pack is now available to download free, from the Trans Pennine Trail website in time for the Easter break. Once again, the pack contains lots of exciting holiday activities that will keep young minds entertained during the February half term break.

Bursting with fun and engaging activities, you will be able to embark on a Spring Scavenger Hunt and take part in a Great British Spring Clean litter pick challenge. You can get creative by making Spring Lamb cupcakes and creating your own Easter Egg decorations while solving the Easter Word search and bringing vibrant colours to life with picture colouring before diving into the next instalment of Mandy Mole's exciting adventure along the Trans Pennine Trail.

It's a fantastic way to celebrate Easter and the beauty of spring!

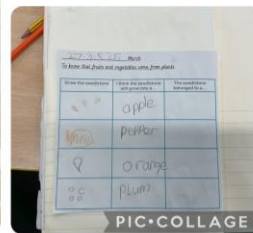

The pack is aimed at primary school children with help as necessary from you, their parents or carers, and older children may enjoy some of the activities too. Download it from our Children's page at:

<https://www.transpenninetrail.org.uk/welcome-to-our-childrens-page/> or by clicking the image above!

YEAR 1 SCIENCE IN SCHOOL

Year 1 have been making predictions about which seed belongs to which fruit in Science. All of the teachers have been so impressed with the children's predicting skills.

DIETICIANS CORNER – TAYLOR SHAW NEWSLETTER

Attached is the TS Newsletter with lots of exciting Easter ideas and recipes but also some interesting facts!

Did you know that children are consuming more than twice the recommended amount of sugar? Half of this comes from snacks and sugary drinks! But what's the problem? Learn:

- How much sugar is too much?
- Spotting hidden sugar
- Suggested swaps

WRITER OF THE WEEK:

Reception:

RBW "Kind" – Rosie-May M Rosie is such a lovely member of our class. As well as being a really kind friend to everyone, she is also such a helpful, well-mannered little girl. Thank you Rosie.

RLR "Resilient" – Dilshaan S Dilshaan has shown increasing resilience this week, especially when writing independently.

RLE "Cooperative" – Thea P for always doing her best at tidy up time to make sure everything is just right. Thea is so reliable and a super sharer too.

Year 1:

1CL Isabelle B for working really hard on her HFW and writing some super questions, always using question marks.

1CR Aurora R for demonstrating she has a secure understanding of the suffixes she has learnt and for using full stops consistently.

Class 1/2:

Aoife F for super sentences! Aoife has written some great questions this week and tried her hardest with her handwriting. Well done!

Year 2:

2SH Danny B for improving the presentation of his writing.

2MK Corey C For super effort when writing his sentences and for editing and improving his spellings.

Year 3:

3VH Iris H for writing super sentences containing speech.

3SN Ayla A for trying her best in writing lessons, you have been doing really well with self-correction. Keep it up.

Class 3/4:

Tilly T for having fantastic ideas and using great emotive language in her persuasive letter.

Year 4:

4EE Emie-Beau S impressed Miss Kirton and Mrs English with her enthusiasm for writing this week, catching up with letter and independence in her writing lesson.

4DM James F for writing a fantastic letter in the role of a character from Krindlekrax. I'm so impressed! Well done!

Year 5:

5SH Seb A Seb has written a great narrative story based on War of the Worlds. He has included all the features and has punctuated sentences accurately. He has also used fantastic suspense to build up to the attack by the aliens!

5CB William P for excellent ideas, sharing his work with good adjectives and a range of sentence types.

5LK Rory K for writing a fantastic alien invasion narrative in his own independent style. It has been a joy to read!

Year 6:

6JL Max J for a fantastic start to his Romeo and Juliet narrative. You've included some fantastic Shakespearean language, well done.

6ZW Will H for applying excellent vocabulary choices to suit the purpose and audience of the writing genre.
