We are really noticing the children's improvement in their letter sound recognition and lots of them are saying you are playing with the sound mat at home, it's working so THANK YOU 😊

Don't forget the key words in the back of the blue books.

Thank you for all the photos sent through our office email address, it is really working and we have received lots of photos, the children love it!

We have a lot of bugs going round at the moment so if you feel your child is not able to cope with a day at school please keep them off to restrict others getting poorly, thank you.
